

-

- Core Concepts
- Tokenization

On this page

Tokenization

Tokenization is performed by Tokenizer, a component that transforms sensitive information such as the Card Number or the Business Client ID into tokens that can be shared without raising security concerns. Data tokenization creates a more secure system while complying with PCI-DSS security standards.

While investigating alerts, users can unlock the tokenized fields to see all available information. This capability depends on each user's permissions.

Learn more a

- Get to know more about tokenization and its advantages in Searching for Alerts.